JOINT RESOLUTION

Designating the week of May 13-19, 1962, as Police Week and designating May 14, 1962, as Peace Officers Memorial Day.

Police Week.
Peace Officers
Memorial Day.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the week of May 13-19, 1962, is hereby designated as Police Week, in recognition of the contribution the police officers of America have made to our civilization through their dedicated and selfless efforts in enforcing the laws of our cities, counties, and States and of the United States regardless of the peril or hazard to themselves, and May 14th is hereby designated as Peace Officers Memorial Day in honor of the Federal, State, and municipal peace officers who have been killed or disabled in line of duty. Through their enforcement of our laws our country has internal freedom from fear of the violence and civil disorder that is presently affecting other nations.

To this end the President is authorized and requested to issue a proclamation inviting the people of the United States to observe such period, with appropriate ceremonies and activities, as a tribute to the men and women who, night and day, stand guard in our midst to protect us through enforcement of our laws, and to honor those who have lost their lives in service to the community.

Approved June 21, 1961.

Proclamation authorization.
